2019 in Brief Review

Scott led a study through the book Multiethnic Conversations with a beautiful group of diverse people in our church. Currently, he is leading the elders through a discussion of the same book.

In March I was able to visit in Athens our dear friend Mr. Ali, from Sudan. His chemo treatments were working but now the cancer is back. Thanks for continuing to pray for him.

An amazingly unbelievable gift was given to us last year for which we thank God every day. You know who you are. :)

Marriage and Parenting classes have been, and will continue to be, a vital component of investing in a community of distress to help see transformation come in this generation and the next.

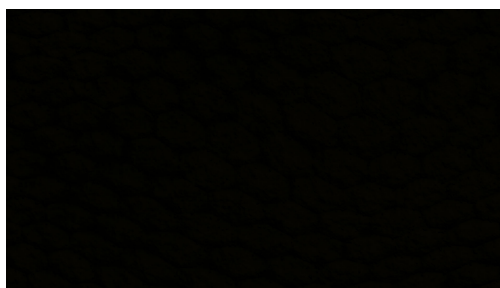

Vicki spoke at a women's conference ("He Calls Me His") organized by our church and Scott led a Short-term Team to The Oasis in Austria.

After about 5 years, Scott was finally able to hand over leadership of the Shalom Steering Team to a group of Kingdom-minded leaders in Rockwood who are seeking God about fostering a spirit of collaboration amongst the churches in Rockwood.

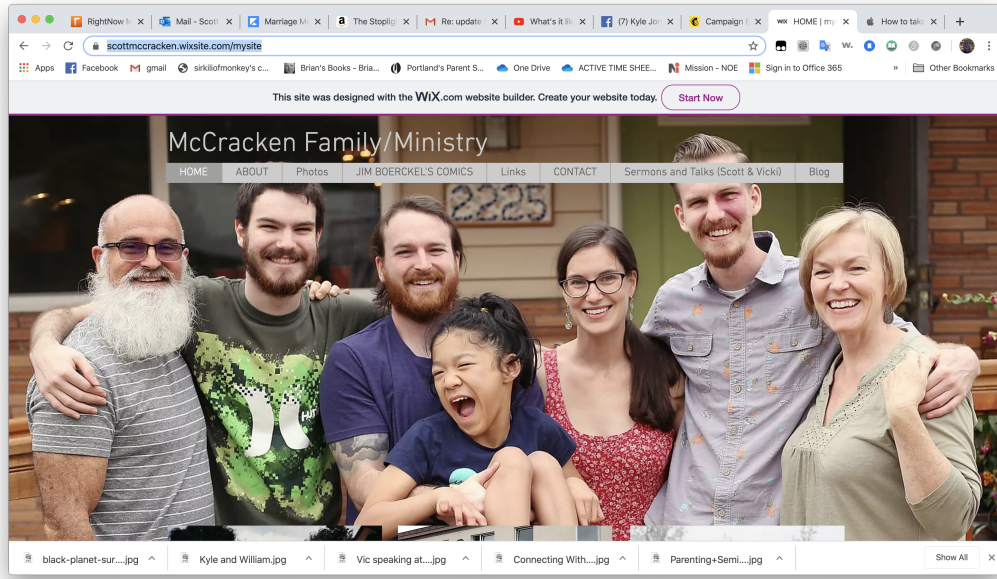

Our son Kyle is still living in Greece and has finished his Masters Thesis in Theology, and is now applying to doctorate schools. The photo is of him and his brother Will acting silly together.

Due to the faithful and generous provision of God through our regular support team AND some generous end-of-year gifts, our account at One Collective ended 2019 in the BLACK! THANK YOU TO ALL WHO PRAYED AND INVESTED!

MANY other things happened in 2019 that encouraged us to believe God wants to continue using YOU and us TOGETHER in educating others about sex trafficking, helping foster a collaborative spirit amongst churches in an at-risk community, discipling others who will disciple others, and taking the Gospel to the nations!

After not having one for over a year, we have launched another Family/Ministry website. It is a work in process so there is much more to be done. Thanks for your patience. We hope you will enjoy it. I want to call special attention to the NEW section called "JIM BOERCKEL'S COMICS".
